The Flame

Volume XXII Issue III "Put out" by the Camas Valley Fire Department Auxiliary April 2022

The Annual Easter Egg Hunt sponsored by the Volunteer Fire Department is coming this month!

Keep your eyes peeled for this notorious egg dropper! He is suspected of previous littering events in the Camas Valley area just prior to Easter. The Douglas County Sheriff's Department supplied the latest mug shot.

He seems harmless and known to give out candy to children diligently picking up his Easter eggs. His favorite littering spot is at the Camas School football field. His next crime is expected Saturday, April 16th.

All local crime-fighters from crawling to 6th grade please report to the football field by 10:30 am to collect evidence. Gates open at 10 am. Evidence to be turned in at the Bus Barn for prizes. Raffles for Easter Baskets and bicycle helmets will also be onsite.

A cake walk will be supervised by Theresa Herberger. Call 541-637-7151 to assist. Lots of baked goods are needed! They can be brought that morning.

Donation cans are located at the Deli Market and Market Plus to support.

Fire trucks will be available for rides to all egg collectors. Lots of lights and sirens!

If you have any questions,
call Vonnie Wallace at 541-445-2355.

Quick! There he goes! Catch him!
Awww! Missed!

We appreciate your Support!

Winston Dillard Food Pantry

DWFP has not received any directions from Oregon Food Bank or UCAN. The volunteers who do the intake and those who have more contact with clients want to continue to wear masks. Those who want to be maskless, we will ask to sit about 6 feet way until we get some directions from OFB or UCAN.

We are seeing people who have not visited for over a year. Wednesday, a lady got a box and she was last in November 2020. So though the pavilion is not heated and we get cold, we are so glad to have a place to operate from.

Remember the DWFP is open at the Riverbend Park Pavilion, Mondays and Wednesdays 9:30-11:30 a.m. and the first and third Wednesday afternoons from 4:30-5:30. Come see us if you are in need of help!

Call Vonnie Wallace at 541-445-2355 or let her know you are leaving items at the Camas Valley Post Office.

Superintendent's Message

Dear Camas Valley Family,

Back in March of 2020, I was getting ready to set up a time where parents or community members could meet with me to ask questions or share concerns related to the school, but then COVID came around, and a lot of in-person things got put on hold; this being one of them. Now that we are moving past the COVID thing, I wanted to set up a time to be available to the community for Q & A. Starting on Tuesday, April 5 at 9 am at the Chalet Deli, I will be treating anyone that wants to come to visit to coffee and donuts. I will be doing this every first Tuesday of the month during the school year, starting in April, continuing in May and June, and then picking back up in September. I would love to see you, so feel free to drop by.
